DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Good evening and welcome to Musical Theatre East's production of Godspell JR! This cast auditioned, rehearsed and put up this entire production in just two weeks, and I am beyond proud of them for their countless hours of hard work. This has been a bucket list show for me to direct because of the iconic, fun and dynamic songs, but more importantly, its beautiful message of Jesus's love, tolerance and kindness.

As a Christ-based theatre company, it was important to me that we show His resurrection. If you have seen other versions of this production, this may have not been included because it is not written into the stage directions of the original show. As believers, we know that Jesus did return three days after the crucifixion, and I think it is a beautiful way to wrap up the show by upholding that truth.

I want to thank my production team, Kathy Chick and Taylor Gentry for putting in so much work on this show, as well as our set designer Scott Avery! Theatre takes a village, and I couldn't do this without you all! We are also grateful to Boulder Mountain Church for use of their facilities as well as help with our lights & sound.

I hope that this show encourages you to go out and build a beautiful city... Now sit back, relax and enjoy the show!
